Youth Matters: Next Steps

Something to do, Somewhere to go, Someone to talk to

The Government wants to see all young people achieving the give Every Child Matters outcomes, with children's trusts at the heart of their services.

Youth Matters, the Youth Green Paper, was published on 18th July 2005 and the subsequent consultation ended on 4th November 2005 with over 19,000 responses from young people. This is one of the largest responses to a government consultation from any one group and sets out the vision for empowering young people, giving them somewhere to go, something to do and someone to talk to.
