

CHRISTINE: lead administrator

After bringing up two sons, Christine began working for London Youth in 1976 when it was still known as the London Federation of Boys Clubs.

Initially she began as a Receptionist working with the Sports Department.

Her role has evolved into working for the Director of Programmes and supporting the Programmes team in all areas of their work. She is also responsible for producing the monthly newsletter and organising the mailings.

To contact Christine email christine.gray at londonyouth.org.uk